BLESSED LITTLE PELLER.

Half your hick'ry shirt stuck in an half a stickin' out—

Puriy nigh as open as your hmilin' eyes of blue;
Buttons? Lerry hits.

Buttons? Lordy hottons never seem the tother you!

Runnin - always runnin - cross the form of a charity auction bridge with fields an' 'monest the trees.

Over people's farms without as much All the deeds on record an' their school in Tennessee leases, too, amount to nothin' for the world belongs to you!

Watched you? 'Course I've watched you, boy, mornin', night an' Couldn't help but notice how you With the things around you, an' you allus seemed t see
Things denied to grownups like the bired hands an' me

Blessed little feller I call sort o' Reckon you're the envy of most every man y' meet;
Couldn't blame the feller they call
Pan if he would—well. "dirty-sweet" Just what up his pinin' for t' play with you a spell! —John D. Wells.

The answer of most fat people is that exercise and dieting is too hard, too troubleaome and too dangerous a method to force the weight down. However, in Marmola Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or violent exercise, and have the added advantage of chaapness. One little tablet after each meal and at bedtime—as pleasant to cat as candy—will reduce your weight two, three or four pounds a week, and leave no bad results such as wrinkless or flabby skin. A good size box is sold by druggists at the reasonable price of one dullar, or if preferable they may be obtained by sending the amount to the Marmola Co., 94 Gartheld Building, Detroit, Mich. They will reach you by mail, prepaid, in plain, sealed cover.
